

I am against BPL transmissions. They create harmful interference on HF/VHF frequencies which are being used by Amateur Radio Operators who use these frequencies to provide health and welfare traffic, emergency communications and good will communications among fellow amateur operators throughout the world. Studies by the ARRL have proven this interference is very real, see www.arrl.org for the facts and results.